Fly high, fly high into the sky and just dream away.
Dream away-ay... Fly away into the night.
And just dream like there's nothing wrong.
Like no one's there holding you down.
Like there's nothing wrong with you now.
Just fly high away and dream like you never have before.
Just fly away. Dream again,
Dream a cloud of bears.
Dream a rushing river of fears.
Dream like your not scared.
Dream like everythings gonna be ok.

Dream like there's no harm.
Then fly high away.
Away into the day or night.
Anyway everything's gonna be alright.
If you just let it be, I can almost garenty it will be ok.
Even if you cry. It will all probably be alright.
Just don't be scared, fly high into the air.
Just think like nobody's there.
Just fly and dream like there's no soul there,
With you in the air.
