Everywhere I go everything looks strange
These people talk to me but I don't know their names
I got to get back home yeah
I got to get back home yeah
I got to get back home cause I'm in love

Everything I say I say for you (and you still know)
And everything I do you do it too
Everything I say I say for you (and you still know)
And everything I do you do it too

Love keep on working
Love keep on working
Love keep on working... your magic

Everywhere I go everything looks strange
These people talk to me but I don't know their names
I got to get back home... yeah
I got to get back home cus I'm in love... love... I'm in love

I've only known you for a week but it feels like years
Love the way you talk love the way you stare
Love your blue eyes and your dark soft hair
And you can't compare to those others
Make me leave my brothers
In the bars in the clubs (you still know)
I'm staying in now (you still know)
Listen to the old school dubs now
I'm preaching real love cus I'm in love

Love the things we do
The days we spend
When we break up
When we mend

La la la la la la la la
(You still know)
La la la la la la la la
(You still know)
La la la la la la la la

I'm in love love
I'm in love
Got to get back home cause I'm in love
Love... I'm in love
Got to get back home cause I'm in love
