"Holding Hands"

Visit "Holding Hands" on MotoLyrics.com

Though intimate should really be
The hand that holds a part of me
Distance comes with broken hearts
The hand that holds can feel apart

A sense of touch can't overcome
A loss of trust, a broken home
Holding hands can feel alone
With shattered hearts that have to mourn

A simple thing like holding hands

Can tell a tale of where things stand
So keep your trust and don't betray
The hand that holds your heart today

Distance comes with broken hearts
The hand that holds can feel apart
So keep your trust and don't betray
The hand that holds your heart today
