Years are going for me so fast
Days are running...will be the last
But you will be forever in my mind
Will never be less
Because you let me inside yourself

I don't know the way without your sight
Take my hand
I don't know the way through darkest night
So beck your wand
Fly away from my hand
And try again to be my friend

Night...and all the dreams of you
Days...it never turn so true
But you will be forever in my mind
Will never be less
Because you let me inside yourself
Rain will wash us as the clouds
Snow will cover up the stars
But you will be forever in my mind
Will never be less
Because you let me inside yourself

I don't know the way without your sight
Take my hand
I don't know the way through darkest night
So beck your wand
Fly away from my hand
And try again, to be my friend

I don't know the way without your sight
Take my hand
I don't know the way through darkest tears
So beck your wand
Fly away from my hand
And try again, to be my friend
