Silent sky starry night so bright is the image of you in my life kill what dreams that were thought visions forgotten and wash your heart out with 800 miles of nothing goodbye...i saw you in my dreams last night blind your eyes with the light reflecting from the fog we walked in at one time sweet thoughts and bitter memories will cross my life
...goodbye

in autumn you'll see my face in the leaves cause i cant seem to erase you from these bitter sweet dreams im sorry it was too late to do anything...
