Congratulations, you've made it to our border
Is there something you would like to order?
A life without oppression and fear

Beautiful nation holds out a prospect of liberation
The exemplary situation, there's no place for supplication
(Beautiful backward harmony, sad hidden melody)

You've got thirty days to convince us all That you're really suffering in life, stand against the wall
But if there is a chance of survival
You have to pack your bags and go home

We know it's not fair but don't really care
Not even aware of the situation out there
Life before becoming a refugee

You're on probation, especially for this occasion
We're having a celebration and maybe we grant asylum

Beautiful nation holds out a prospect of liberation
The exemplary situation, there's no place for
supplication
(Beautiful backward harmony, sad hidden melody)

We know it's not fair but don't really care
Not even aware of the situation out there
Life before becoming a refugee

Sorry, but you have to go, where to, we don't wanna know
We deny you our hospitality

Congratulations, you've made it to our border
Is there something you would like to order?
A life without oppression and fear

We know it's not fair but don't really care
Not even aware of the situation out there

Life before becoming a refugee
