it doesn't seem to matter what you say you will never feel the same it doesn't seem to matter what you do I will fall in love with you and everyday I think we grow apart I guess I saw it from the start I guess I knew that you and I won't be It doesn't mean that I can't dream about you think about you still you complete a part of me I never knew I had to fill I'd give you everything like the times I'd sing on the phone to you was not the easiest thing to do you know its true and I swear by my heart there is nothing on earth that will keep us apart and all I have I swear I give to you all that I say you and I will begin this way when you fall in love with me it doesn't seem to matter what I say you will never be the same it doesn't seem to matter what you do I will fall in love with you and everyday I wonder how you feel if your sincerity is real I took the time I softly called your name I know I should've screamed instead do you miss meaning everything to me cause not a day goes by if I had kissed you it just might have changed our destiny cause we were meant to be i'm standing on one knee wont you please just marry me you know its true you know it could have been this way.
