and so i cant decide if i wanna stay or leave tonite cause a dream has called that ive waited for my entire life

so leave the window open cause tonite i think im
coming home
so leave the window open for tonight...

and so baby ill be missing everything i leave behind but just maybe ill be finding what it takes to feel alive so leave the window open cause tonight i think im

coming home
so leave the window open for tonight..
pictures i have seen...
and places in between....
ill see you in my dreams.....
