Album: Space Camp (2002)

and so i can't decide if i wanna stay or leave tonite cause a dream has called that ive waited for my entire life

so leave the window open cause tonite i think im
coming home
so leave the window open for tonight...

and so baby I'll be missing everything i leave behind but just maybe I'll be finding what it takes to feel alive

so leave the window open cause tonight i think im
coming home
so leave the window open for tonight...

pictures i have seen...
and places in between....
I'll see you in my dreams.....
