You say you want it all

To dip your fingers in the green
You say you want it all

The sun, the moon, and what's in between
You say you want it all

You want the world to know your face

Baby haven't you heard
Every star can be replaced

Ride the product line

Hop in your box but don't protest

You just been signed
To the three ring bull!?!? business

It's a players ball

And the pimps come in black and white
And that's about all as I turn in this song to

My pimp tonight

[chorus]

Oh, you
Ask me how

You can win

How many walls you gon' have to break down

To get in

Oh, oh, oh

As you're steady pushin' through

Oh, oh, oh

Don't let it be breakin' you

Some who have it all

Are one big shiny lie

They're selling us a story they know that

We're gonna buy

But don't you let them fool you baby

They can't sleep at night

Their mirror shows a reflection of a person that they don't like

Ride the product line

Hop in your box but don't protest
You just been signed

To the three ring bull!?!#* business

Check your brain at the door
Then hang it up with your originality

I can't say no more

'cause if I do then they won't let you hear from me

[chorus]

There ain't no real love up in here

There ain't no

There ain't no real love up in here

There ain't no
If you're lookin for real love up in here

If you're lookin for

Gotta bring your own real love up in here

Bring your own

[chorus]
