Where do I begin?
I'm still lost in my sin
No matter what I do
I still fall short of You

Id like think that I could go
Beyond where I am
But each time I try
I find myself back where I started

I've heard it said
Its easier to die for You than live
I pray that in the end
Its the fighting of the battle
Not the triumph

He was a better man than I
He was a better man than I
Id like to think that I would die
For such a better man than I

How do I stay in the Spirit
As long as my flesh lives?
Nuno you said it best
"My miracles run weak"

Release me from my bonds
I can't take it any more
Cant you see?
My flesh, I abhor

I've heard it said
Its easier to die for You than live
I pray that in the end
Its the fighting of the battle
Not the triumph
He was a better man than I
He was a better man than I
No worse than me you can't deny
You are a better man than I

Though I battle my flesh I wont give it up!

No, I will fight till the end!
I know that the dying is worth the living
I give You all that I am

Lord give me the strength to
Pick up my cross yet again
Turn your sword on me Lord,
I lay down for You again

I know that it's true
Its easier to die for You than live
But I pray that in the end
Its the fighting of the battle!

You are a better man than I
You are a better man than I
The Son sent, for me, to die
Jesus, You are a better man than I

Tears of sorrow I cry
For the Son sent down, for me He died!
I will fight all the days of my life
You are a better man than I
