there was no doubt, the moment it was savored.
with or without , dad's code is speakin' out of anger.

when word got out, the kid was in danger.
we all went south, for skirting the chains of labor.

the kindness of strangers
the kindness of strangers
the kindness of strangers
the kindness of strangers

so we all got out through the kindness of strangers we just walked out the kid was leaning on a leg to favor and there was no doubt the kid was in danger 'cause she was cast out but turned a corner and her dad forgave her.

the kindness of strangers
the kindness of strangers
the kindness of strangers
