Maybe you'll chance me and maybe you won't your hands in mine but will you let go? you took a chance and you took it on me so now i want to tell you what you mean then i see something that changes my night it changes my feelings and put out my light then i see your lips touch his and you run away looking at the ground you can't look me in the eyes

'cause you know i know
and you know it's not right and when he's gone i won't come back it's broken now and forever lost then you come running back to me saying it was nothing but a fling but i'll never go back no not to you i'll never go back never to you

don't call my name
i'm not coming back
don't call my name
i wish i could say
i hate you but i can't hidden lies and deceptive eyes if you said you loved me i know you lied

take another drink and go try to drive
maybe jump off a cliff
i hope you die
