

American Catapult "Permission"

Visit "Permission" on MotoLyrics.com

All I want is one good reason to be here, without condition, without restraint Come on, someone's got to give us permission, without restriction, without complaint And it's all right, we can ride this out, won't be long before we're further south Give us one foot in the doorway, we'll play in the hallway, if we can

All at once the barrier's been broken, without religion, without disdain
Come along this border that's unspoken, without good reason, without a plan And it's all right, you can write this down, what was lost was courage finally found Give us one foot in the doorway, we'll play on the runway, and we have
