This time, given, standing, A slow burn is never for nothing
This time, newness, knowing, it's already done, and still worth doing All eyes fall hard on the follow, the next thing, give it some room
It's all in the moving this time
This time, feels like a shot in the arm, we've all been awoken, pulled into focus This time, it's twenty twenty, this time all votes are counting for something, counting for something

All eyes fall hard on the follow, the next big thing, give
it some room
It's all in the choosing this time
This time feels so close, feel it pass on through me like a ghost
This time, this is no shot in the dark, this time all lights are green, it's clear straight ahead, clear straight ahead
All eyes fall hard on the follow, the next big thing, give
it some room
It's all invitation this time
