I'm on that other baby girl know where I can get more?
Crash ready to burn so you know what it do
And she's a dime, just watchin for her man in the back

Everybody knows where you keepin it at
Lookin for strange yo know the talent is hot
Poppin on the corner gotta pound for the block
I gives a fuck about your honeys and cash
Everybody knows where you keepin at
You keep walkin by
Keep on walkin by my friends
All this time walking by
All this my friends
100 grand that his mattress can hold
Walkin round the town with a red carpet on Sayin that time equals money
Matter fact everybody knows where you keepin it at
It is what is aint said I'd pay for shit

Ya boys gotta problem man they know where I'm is
I aint got time ya feel me? you know it's like that
Everybody knows where you keepin it at.
Hahahahhahahahahahaha
