"Push Me Away"

she hasn't eaten in days her family wonders about her ways but they don't understand so they try the best they can to push it all away she hasn't spoken in days she lost a job that never pays and she tries to understand why she never found a man that didn't push her away she says everybody puts their faith in someone they cannot see yet i'm standing right here you won't believe in me tell me what it takes so i don't feel fake
and i try to be good for goodness sake all i ask from you is please don't push me away and i don't know what they've said to you while some of it just may be true i need some time i'll be fine
don't push me away [her mother was never there, and her father never cared] and the children understand that even they have their demands that just get pushed away she hasn't smiled in 30 days yeah
since her father flew away when she tries to understand why he couldn't be a man they tell her that each day

go ahead do what you may i got nothing to say you said it all before on your way out the door i can't keep losing you i can't keep going through the same thing everyday go ahead, push me away
