It's sad to think we're not gonna make it
And it's gotten to the point where we can't fake it
For some ungodly reason, we just won't let it die
I guess neither one of us wants to be the first to say goodbye

I keep on wondering what I'm gonna do without you
And I guess you must be wondering the same thing too
So we go on, go on together, living a lie Cause neither one of us wants to be the first to say goodbye

Everytime I find the nerve Everytime I find the nerve to say I'm leaving Oh the memories, Oh the memories get in the way
Lord knows it's only me, he knows it's only me
That I'm cheating
When it comes to saying goodbye, that's just a simple word that I cannot just say

There can be no way, there can be no way this can have a happy ending
So we go on lying and pretending
And convincing ourselves to give it just one more try
Cause neither one of us wants to be the first to say
Neither one of us wants to be the first to say
Neither one of us wants to be the first to say Farewell my love, goodbye
