"Different People"

Don't say that you care, don't tell me how I should be 'Cause you know it ain't fair to go and try to fix me

You used to love my laugh, now you're sayin' I'm too loud

You used to love the way I dress, now I gotta tone it down

It's like you tryna change things that make me, me
But I can't help but be, be who I be

We can be different people
We can be different people
You gotta love me or just leave me, baby
It's who I am, it's who you are

Sometimes we won't see eye to eye
'Cause we're different people
But I gotta love you or just leave you, baby
It's who I am, it's who you are

You know that I care, you know I accept you And that's what I don't share all the things I think you should do

You used to take me out, now you stay watching the game
For no reason you'd just send me flowers, now it's just holidays
You used to keep me guessing, now there's no mystery, no, no
But you can't help it, baby, you'll be who you'll be

We can be different people
We can be different people
You gotta love me or just leave me, baby
It's who I am, it's who you are

Sometimes we won't see eye to eye
'Cause we're different people
But I gotta love you or just leave you, baby

It's who I am, it's who you are

It's who we are, it's who we are Babe, I couldn't try to and I shouldn't want to I wouldn't want to change anything

It's who we are, it's who we are
I know that you're still with who you've been in love with You shouldn't want me changin' nothing

We can be different people
We can be different people
You gotta love me or just leave me, baby
It's who I am, it's who you are

Sometimes we won't see eye to eye
'Cause we're different people
But I gotta love you or just leave you, baby
It's who I am, it's who you are, it's who we are
