Your sitting in your room you got me on the phone i say "ill be there soon" you look outside and I'm on your front lawn i put my phone away cause when i look at you theres nothing left to say i love the way you look tonight, i really do we're meant to be together it doesn't matter who tries to get in our way ill never leave

and you don't ever have to worry about losing me

and ill get by
cause we're in love
and just hearing your voice is just barely enough
to keep me company
when your gone
that i want you more than anything
and i miss you

this is real we're in love and i know this is true your all I'm thinking of every time I'm without you i want to hold you tight i want you here with me ill lay in bed and close my eyes and i will see you in my dreams

i feel the way that i do because we're perfect and id do anything for you because your worth it
