You played a shady game
You dried up all I had
And you did it again
Oh how could you do that
Just lies and broken promises
You hit me where I stand
I guess I must deserve this
We all get dealt our hand

*Keep yourself together
Keep it straight
Keep cool, keep cool
If you want to play in the game
Then you better mind the rules
There's nothing to be gained by
Screwing me now
It won't do, it won't do
If you want to play in the game
Then you better mind the rules

It's just the games we play
Day and night
You chose this way
Be satisfied
It's just those games we play
Wrong or right
Win or lose
Can't give up the fight

Talk will beat you down
You won't know where you stand
And you did it again
Can't take dignity back
When your friends become your enemies
And cheated all you can
I guess that's the price you'll pay
We all get dealt our hand

(* repeat)

I cut you of my list just 'cause I insist
That you are not my friend

And you are not the first to go
But the smaller it grows
The bigger I count my win
Cause I've wasted too much time
On reason or reason or rhyme
Try'n to justify my head
Now I don't mind how many times you try and Take me on
Or if we never play again
