Once again I am kept awake
Inside myself silence you cannot break
Regrets of wakling past
Regrets of speaking way too fast

(Chorus:)

If I could go back, I'd tell you "
Don't let me get too close"
My heart will bleed, my life will change,
Please keep me away"
If I could go back, I'd just
Leave it all that night night
I wasn't in too deep and I could still keep Breathing when I was away from you

It's 2AM 3 hours til dawn
When morning breaks your feeling are gone
Regrets come again to take over me
Regrets too dark, too dark to see

(Chorus)

Now you're gone, I can't breathe
You're not here, I can't breathe
You turned your back, I can't breathe
I need you back because I can't breathe

Everythings in my life falls apart it fell apart
Everything I said broke my heart it breaks my heart
Why did I do that?
How could I do that?

(Chorus)
