What is it with you?
You always seem to take my breath away
Like when I took
My very first look at you I had no words to say
Every move you make
Every breath I take I'm more infatuated
I want to stay
Forever this way I want to be right here

(Chorus:)
This is so out of the ordinary
Too good to be true
I cannot believe this is happening
I can't believe I'm with you
I'm so disillusioned
My world melts away, all I see is your face
I need a step back into reality
Wait, this is real
You look at me
And all I see is you Now I need you
Permanent smile on my face
I long for your embrace do you need me too?
I looked all around
But now I've found you are the perfect one
I can't wait to do this again
Cause I dream of it when I close my eyes

(Chorus)

How could this really be? It's blowing my mind
I'm thinking why me? Cause you are the perfect find
I know this is real cause I can really feel you
This is impossible so out of the ordinary

(Chorus) x2
