You wanna feel me
Can't defeat me at your game
You buy and sell me
Separate me from my name

And I want you to once invert the wrong
'Cause I can't breathe
And I want you to once admit I'm right

You come with something
But it's nothing that I need
You violate me, have to break me to breathe

And I want you to once invert the wrong
'Cause I can't breathe
And I want you to once admit I'm right

You point your finger
I'll play that game with you, with you
I just can't believe things we say

And I want you to once invert the wrong
'Cause I can't breathe
And I want you to once admit I'm right
And I want you
