Hmmm, solid on a mountain
Yes, man, see me solid like a mountain

This is all I want you to be
We're strangers now
But that's just the way we see ourselves
It's impossible for you now
What has gone
The hour has come, my friend
For us to try and breathe again now

But I won't hold you back
Hold you back, no, my friend

If you try anew to understand
If you really want to Live your life as jah has planned
If you really wanna live your life

But I won't hold you back
Hold you back, no, my friend
