If summer was blue
It's not a thing that would surprise you
If someone knew you
There wouldn't be a need to know who
I'll watch you as you sleep
At least a memory is mine to keep
You've touched me so deep
I cannot even stand on my feet

Da dee da [x6]

You'll always have me
As close to you as I can ever be
I'll always have you,
But only in my dreams when I'm blue

Da dee da [x6]

You'll always have me
As close to you as I can ever be
I'll always have you,
But only in my dreams when I'm blue

Oh, I am not allowed to want a thing from you
Oh, I am not supposed to even be here too

If summer was blue
If summer...
If summer was blue
If summer...

Da dee da [x6]

Oh, I am not allowed to want a thing from you
Oh, I am not supposed to even be here too
Oh, I am not allowed to want a thing from you
Oh, I am not supposed to even be here too
