You and I - forever in darkness.
You are my queen of forbidden pleasures.
I need your body - your blood and bones.
I want your fear - I trink your tears.

I am the master of darkness.
I'll take you to my kingdom of flesh
You can trust me 'cause I will show you
The beauty of suffering

Come into my kingdom - come into my world.

Your pale sweet body put's fire in my vains.
I can smell your blood - I can smell your lust.
Tonight is my night - the night without shadows.
We have nothing to hide. we celebrate our pleasures
