You took your eyes away
And your amazing hair
You took the sky away
And all the breathable air
And you left an empty room
A useless bed
And a suicidal moon

It's a good thing I don't have any feelings
A damn good thing that I can't feel a damn thing
Anymore

You took your love away
All that amazing love
You took the memory of whatever love was
And you said:
"I hate you
I hate you
I hate you,"

It's a good thing I don't have any feelings
A damn good thing that I can't feel a damn thing
Anymore

It's a good thing I don't have any feelings
A damn good thing that I can't feel a damn thing
I don't have any feelings
Anymore
