I see you fail and i laugh
You took a hit
And you got no backup
You fucked it up once again
I blame you for that
Still give you no backup

I watch it blow
I watch it grow
Now you're so low
You watch me glow
I watch you blow, watch you blow away

You're so astray
And that's for sure
You leave me no choice
Still give you no backup
They hit you hard
You feel no pain
And you don't care
I guess you're too stuck up

I watch you blow away...
There is no change in you
Let it go
