You burned me down
To hold my eyes at the lake of sorrow
There is no ??? of my eyes
Take me and make us one

See the shadow of my obsession
Knowing her so well
Raise your head with no compassion
I feel this lost, oh, take away ... away!

In this life I feel lost for you
All those times
I've been praying for your love
In your eyes
I see love and innocence
But I still I do not know
And I'm loving you
Still I'm trying to touch
Are you loving me
Do you want to do
Realize be now and dance
Come on follow my words then we will fly

???

If love is for real
We might relive
All alone is not for real
Why don't you take me for real?
