Wasting time with your billboard signs.
Swift action is on the decline.
We'll do what you've done for years,
But with our own blood, sweat and tears.

Our future is here and it starts today.
We can't let it end, won't let it go your way.

Motivated in my mind. So this time, I'm getting up.
My pride's been underrated and I feel like I've had enough.
Injustice in my thoughts, and it's racing through my head
That I'd be better off dead.

I can't believe that you refuse to see what's right in front of you.
What's often hidden from us is hidden in plain view.
Now I don't want to be perceived as if I'm preaching to you,
But you have to open your eyes enough to see the truth.

Our future is here and it starts today.
