The day tastes like I can't fit it
And tells me I'm out of line.
The things that I have permitted
(To you) are ignored, so I'm left behind.
And I'll never ask you
Why couldn't we rhyme?
You're self-centred all the time.

I've been wading through the night.
Devious, waiting, I'm omitted, declined and denied...
Why so timid, why so blind?
Got a suspect, got a feeling we never confide.

You touch me like I'm contagious,
Like I am a fragile vase...
I wait for your kiss for ages
And stay awake just in case.
I don't need to ask you
Why don't we rhyme!
You're self-centred all the time.

I've been wading through the night.
Devious, waiting, I'm omitted, declined...
Make me happy, be so kind
I crave your passion but you're making me lonely

inside...

Lying here
I feel omitted and cold.
Don't you care
About me?
Aching here
I feel omitted and cold.
I guess you don't ever care
So get omitted in return...

I feel omitted and cold...
I feel omitted and cold...
I feel omitted and cold...

I've been wading through the night.
Devious, waiting, I'm omitted, declined and denied...
Why so timid, why so blind?
Got a suspect, got a feeling we never confide.

I've been wading through the night.
Devious, waiting, I'm omitted, declined...
Make me happy, be so kind
I crave your passion but you're making me lonely
inside...

I feel omitted...
I feel omitted and cold...
I feel omitted...
I'll better get out for a smoke...
