INTRO:

I'll call [you]
And you'll come to me...

VER1:

I am deep in your heart,
On the edge of sanity,
In a sea unexplored,
On an isle of your secret desires.
You feel safe when on shore
In the sands of consciousness,
But one day you won't wait anymore
Then you'll leave for my tempting coasts...

JOINT:

I call [you]
So step on board.

VER2:

Watch the waves crashing by,
The sun fades with your virtue,
I see fear in your eye,
Your iris is my secret lagoon.
You'll be safe in my arms,
And secure inside of me,
You'll sell your soul for my charms
And risk your life in my storms.

CHOR1:

You want
A paradise in my hell,
The one in me.
I'll sing
To lead you through the tempest...
And you'll come to me.

BRIDGE1:

I'll push you up, I'll throw you down,
I'll make you bleed, I'll drain you dry,
I'll shut you up, I'll drown you down,
I'll drive you mad and lewd, and high.

CHOR2:
You want
Your sweetest dreams become true
I know them all.
I'll sing
And lead you through the tempest...
To share your Fall.

BRIDGE2:
Dive into the deep and find me there...
Dive into the deep and catch me there...
Dive into the deep and take me there...
Dive into the deep and jazz me there...

CODA:
I'll give you
All the pleasures you suppressed,
I'll bring you
Satisfaction and happiness,
I'll be yours
To your last breath, to your last heartbeat,
Then I'll take your life... x2

OUTRO:
Dive into the deep and find me there...
Dive into the deep and catch me there...
Dive into the deep and take me there...
Dive into the deep and jazz me there...
