You said... I am too special to you
You said it like I was a kinda model that wouldn't fit
You,
And now you really dunno what to do...
Me too...
You said I'm pretty and cute,
But yet I feel that I don't ever suit
You well enough...
You're afraid and unaware of what you're facing...
You never thought you might
(What a fright)
And now you don't think you're able to
'Cause I'm amazing...

To me it's a kinda plague,
It feels like I dream,
But all of a sudden I know I'm awake...
It hurts, it burns, and it turns me upside down,
And then my heart unfurls
As I cry with no sound.
I still control my shakes
But every minute it takes
Is a torture to me...
You talk but every time you speak
I gotta feeling you lie to me,
So my heart gets bleak
Every time... every time...

I'd buried myself inside
And faced everything with eyes open wide,
Yet it took too much to reach the balance.
I tried
Though too fucked up with lie,
Though conditioned to die
I got better in my head
And much more cynical in bed.
I've lost all my believes and choked all my dreams
'Cause in truth nothing is really what it seems.
I belied myself so that I could hold on
Now take a one good look at what you've done to me!
Come on!

Now I can fly... like I'm a soar cry,
You made me feel this way...
Now I can fly... like I'm a soar cry,
Sometimes you kill me, but I can't die...
Now I can fly... like I'm a soar cry,
You made me feel this way...
Now I can fly... like I'm a soar cry,
Sometimes you kill me, but I can't die...

Now I've gotta fly... like I'm a soar cry,
You made me feel this way...
Now I've gotta fly... like I'm a soar cry,
Sometimes you kill me, but I can't die...
Now I've gotta fly... like I'm a soar cry,

You made me feel this way...
Now I've gotta fly... like I'm a soar cry,
Sometimes you kill me, but you know I can't die...

You never met anyone like me,
There's no wonder you didn't 'cause I'm the one
Eternally
You dunno what to expect,
You dunno what you could get
If only you wanted to...
You're afraid to know whom you met.
God gave me you, god gave you me,
But you're a human so you can't take it easily,
And I'm unsure of what I might be:
An angel for you, a temptation, but anyway not a human Being...

Do you wanna take my life?
I just wanna know what for I strive...
For you, for me, for us, for god's sake?
You taste and smell like my destiny and it makes my Heart ache.
You ask me why I'm here by your side,
Why I confide...
But anyhow I can't explain...
The one and only thing I know it is all right...
It's all right... right as the moon and stars above so
Bright...

(Now listen)

But you don't believe me,
You're afraid to believe me.
If you're so scared why don't you just leave me?

It's all because you know I'm your only chance...
Nobody wants another failed romance.
But there'll be none at all
If we'll be deaf to the call
Of something deep inside us, aware of a fall
We often give up. We give up... that's why
We stay alone and hear the bitter soar cry...

You said... I am too special to you
And now you really dunno what to do...
Me too...
Now you made me fly like I'm a soarcry.
Don't let me die away like I'm a soarcry.
Now take a one good look at what you've done to me
And what I've done to you.
Or maybe that's what should happen to me
And to you...
We're given to each other,
So we deserve each other.
