Been down in the dirt
I've struggled twice
Finding my direction
The riddle of life, it's just like a maze
That changes every second
I can't explain the things I feel, but I know you're a keeper
The things that you said it's all repeating my head
Still wondering what you meant

(Don't you know, don't you know)
It's the start of something good
(Don't you know, don't you know)
That it's torture loving you

You're turning me upside down but I'm loving it
I'm still loving it
You're turning me inside out but I'm loving it
Yeah it feels like I'm in a hurricane and I've lost control
You're turning me upside down but I'm loving it
I'm still loving it, I'm still loving it

We've broken the ice and it causes me pain
I'm struck by your affection
I was down on my knees, was just gonna ask
Got interrupted two times
You got me wishing you would leave
But still know you're a keeper
I'm chasing my words, you're holding them back
I'd tell you if I could

(Don't you know, don't you know)
It's the start of something good
No, girl you know (Don't you know, don't you know)
That it's torture loving you

You're turning me upside down but I'm loving it
I'm still loving it
You're turning me inside out but I'm loving it
Yeah it feels like I'm in a hurricane and I've lost control
You're turning me upside down but I'm loving it

I'm still loving it, I'm still loving it

(Don't you understand what she's doing to you?)

No I can't understand what I ask her to Marry me,

Save me from all my downs

(No you don't understand what she's all about, all about)

I'm still loving it

Yeahhh, you're turning me upside down, but I'm loving it

You're turning me inside out, but I'm loving it, oh yeah yeah

I'm in a hurricane and I've lost control

You're turning me upside down, but I'm loving it

You're turning me upside down, but I'm loving it (Yes I do)

You're turning me inside out, but I'm loving it

Yeah it feels like I'm in a hurricane and I've lost control

You're turning me upside down, but I'm loving it

I'm still loving it
