I do my time at the daily grind,
Five days a week you know I don't mind,
And next week I'll be ready again, I just need a good weekend,
Same ol thing just a new day, I need to unwind and I need to play,
Done my time and the week is through, and now it's time to,

Put away the sun, the work is all done
Let's make a beer run, crank that music loud,
You know that we'll be singing all night,
I work as hard as I play, got two dam days,
To do it my way, I bust my butt all week,
But the weekend always makes it alright,
That's the story of my life,
Story of my life.

Alarm goes off and it's six A.M.
It's Monday morning you know I'm hurtin,
But I'll suck it up and be a man,
Cause there's only five days till the weekend,
Same ol thing just a new day, I need to unwind and I
need to play,
I've done my time and the week is through, and now it's time to,

Put away the sun, the work is all done
Let's make a beer run, crank that music loud,
You know that we'll be singing all night,
I work as hard as I play, got two dam days,
To do it my way, I bust my butt all week,
But the weekend always makes it alright,
That's the story of my life,
Story of my life.

All I need are the simple things, and you know I'll enjoy the ride,
A couple friends and a paycheck to burn,
Another weekend to help me survive.

Put away the sun, the work is all done
Let's make a beer run, crank that music loud,
You know that we'll be singing all night,
I work as hard as I play, got two dam days,
To do it my way, I bust my butt all week,
But the weekend always makes it alright,
That's the story of my life,
Story of my life.
