Species Mankind: an error of nature
A bunch of fools and insane
We ruin and break
For which we all are conditionally trained

If there's a God, I beg you dearly:
Let mankind be brought to doom!

The only creatures who fuck without the purpose to breed
We're nothing more but bags of shit who murder for our creed
The only creatures who kill without reason to kill
We remain barbarians and we proudly always will!

A global movement, dedicated to erradicate ideology
Hate everyone as you hate yourselves
Thou Shalt Disrespect!

The only creatures who fuck without the purpose to
breed
We're nothing more but bags of shit who murder for
our creed
The only creatures who kill without reason to kill
We remain barbarians and we proudly always will!

Stupidity is bliss, and censor all that makes sense Since no-one can hurt you once you're drown in ignorance

Species Mankind: an error of nature
A bunch of fools and insane
We ruin and break
For which we all are eternally maimed.
