I'm ready to let it out
I'll watch the circus scene
You're taking the mystery out
Of these impossible things

Should I have mentioned the things
I did for you
Should I have felt it the way
I meant to

With words that I can't explain

Tonight, tonight
There will be all that is right
In my hands
Wait and see
You'll light up the dark
I hate these shadows
Burning me out in the end

I'm thinking of getting out
While I can still believe
I'll try and forget about
The secrets that we both keep

When did this change
What has this cost
Are you to blame
When I'm so lost

With words that I can't explain

Tonight, tonight
There will be all that is right
In my hands
Wait and see
You'll light up the dark
I hate these shadows
Burning me out in the end

Save me

I feel so alone
Should I fall down
Or stand on my own
With my soul overtaking
Just what have I become
In the end

Tonight, tonight
There will be all that is right
In my hands
Wait and see
You'll light up the dark
I hate these shadows
Burning me out in the end

Tonight, tonight
There will be all that is right
In my hands
Wait and see
You'll light up the dark
I hate these shadows
