Eyes with styes see the idiot right here:
I'm too severe to stay and too entangled to go away.
Fights and frights didn't make a coward of me,
They've made an award of me, yet I can't be stolen
Away.

Pain and shame: I exist through their bitterness,
I persist through the emptiness trying not to fade
Away.

Hate came late. 'Twas the last thing I felt at the time
Trampled but feeling so fine, striving to run away.

Just let me go!
I guess
I've got nothing to loose, save the total abuse
I've got nothing to do, but fight my way through.

I'll never return, I'll never hesitate
Dead or alive I'll hold on 'cuz that's my fate.
Up through the heavens or down through the Gehenna
I'll follow the Sun, I'll come to my Father.

Stare and laugh. You can never equal to me,
Can never come over me, can never go away.
Weep and cry. You can never get outta your shit,
Crawl in your dirty pit, it fits you well and your ok.
Septic souls, your not worth my shadow at night

Drawn by the moonlight. In the name of God keep away!
You're The Chaos. And I am the beam of light
I am unstoppable so I'll never fade away

Just let me go!
I guess
I've got nothing to loose, save the total abuse
I've got nothing to do, but fight my way through.

I'll never return, I'll never hesitate
Dead or alive I'll hold on 'cuz that's my fate.
Up through the heavens or down through the Gehenna
I'll follow the Sun, I'll come to my Father.

I join the sunbeams,
I come in silence
To begin the endings,
To stop the violence...

Just let me go!
I guess
I've got nothing to loose, save the total abuse
I've got nothing to do, but fight my way through.

I'll never return, I'll never hesitate
Dead or alive I'll hold on 'cuz that's my fate.
Up through the heavens or down through the Gehenna
I'll follow the Sun, I'll come to my Father.

I join the sunbeams,
I come in silence...
