Narcotic smiles
Eyes like mirror glass
Miles and miles
Of closest skeletons

You instill
Heartfelt melodies
Up this hill
There's no mercy

Your unbearable beauty
Your unbearable charm
Your unbearable smile
That lingers for a while

How you feel
Is a mystery
Spin the wheel
It's all good

An endless dance
Round and round again
And every chance
A drop of rain

Your unbearable beauty
Your unbearable charm
Your unbearable smile
That lingers for a while
