Too cruel to die
You face an unknown fiend
That grew the night
You were on your knees

Unite/ divide
Be strong
Respect/ despite
Be wrong

War begins
It's dog eat dog again
New age crusade
A fight you will not win
You walk and fall
You'd better swear to growl

Today you're judge
And jury too
Someone out there
Will bleed for you
Don't hesitate
Don't she'd no tear
Your next mistake
Is what your fear

Stand someday
Nights, years on sail
Once set free
You'll fall again
Once there was a healthy mind
Now each braincell's too cruel to die

Some say wise men
Had nothing to fear
Neither wise nor man
So your faith disappeared
