There's something wrong with the mental lighting
Can you no longer see who you're fighting?
That person next to you just stands there staring
But does it really matter what he's wearing?

But does it really matter what he's wearing?
But does it really matter what he's wearing?
He only wants to feel liberated
How can he do it when he thinks he's hated?
Begins to wonder if it's worth the risk
He didn't come here to feel like this no, no
He didn't come here to feel like this
He didn't come here to feel like this

Intimidated, prosecuted, subjugated,
underpaid and obligated to the hatred UNWANTED
Intimidated, prosecuted, subjugated,
underpaid and obligated to the hatred UNWANTED
UNWANTED UNWANTED

You big men with your steel toe caps stamping
Your mark of manhood on those only dancing
We're all real people and no need for protest
The crowd of boards that surrounds the (roses?)
Enjoy it while you've got it before it disappears
Don't enjoyment drown in blood and tears
Analyse the violence and it's all based on fears
Childhood insecurity and too many beers
Childhood insecurity and too many beers
Childhood insecurity, too many beers

In reality the enemy it isn't you it isn't me we're only left with apathy UNITED
In reality the enemy it isn't you it isn't me we're only left with apathy UNITED UNITED
