As I was going over the far famed Kerry mountains
I met with captain Farrell and his money he was Counting.

I first produced my pistol, and then produced my Rapier.

Said stand and deliver, for I am a bold deceiver,

Musha ring dumma do damma da
Whack for the daddy 'ol
Whack for the daddy 'ol
There's whiskey in the jar

I counted out his money, and it made a pretty penny.
I put it in my pocket and I took it home to Jenny.
She said and she swore, that she never would deceive
Me,
But the devil take the women, for they never can be Easy

I went into my chamber, all for to take a slumber,
I dreamt of gold and jewels and for sure it was no Wonder.
But Jenny took my charges and she filled them up with Water,
Then sent for captain Farrel to be ready for the Slaughter.

It was early in the morning, as I rose up for travel,
The guards were all around me and likewise captain
Farrel.
I first produced my pistol, for she stole away my
Rapier,
But I couldn't shoot the water so a prisoner I was Taken.

If anyone can aid me, it's my brother in the army,
If I can find his station down in Cork or in Killarney.
And if he'll come and save me, we'll go roving near Kilkenny,
And I swear he'll treat me better than me darling
Sportling Jenny

Now some men take delight in the drinking and the Roving,
But others take delight in the gambling and the Smoking.
But I take delight in the juice of the barley,
And courting pretty fair maids in the morning bright
And early

Background: Great pub sing-a-long about a man who robs
Captain Farrell on the road. He brings the money home
And shows it to his love, Jenny. Then while he's Sleeping, his love takes his money and tells Captain
Farrell where to find him. Metallica covered it in 1999
Based on a version by Thin Lizzy.
