Some people always know the right thing to say.
I don't really think I was born that way.
And with the gift of charm, they're well endowed.
I love to watch them float right through a crowd.

I used to think it took a giggly girl
To win some fame in this mixed around world.
But I know better now.

One day I met a man who showed me love.
There standing on his head was a snow white dove,
And he said, "Once I came down to this mire for you,
But I'm the Son of God; He's your Father too."

It wasn't long before my new walk began.
Since I found Jesus, my life is in His hands.

Now I have life; no one can take it from me,
And I've a home above I'm waiting to see.
There're many rooms in the house of the Lord.
Why don't you come along, and bring someone more?

I used to think it took a giggly girl
To win some fame in this mixed around world.
But I know better now.

I know better now.

I know better now.

I know better now.

I know better now.

I know better now.

I know better now.

I know better now.

I know, I know, I know,

I know better now!
