Something in my life is missing
Finally now I can't see I spend too many nights just wishing Someone to love only me

Monday, Friday, I go to work, and then home again
No one there to hold me, no, no
Weekends I run around, and I finally understand I'm looking for someone to give my love again

And now I'm Looking for Love again (Looking for love)
I'm Looking for Love again, that'll never end to fill up
my life
I'm looking for a brand new love again (looking for love)
Looking for Love (looking for love)

Living alone in the city, sure doesn't fit my own plan Hiding in my own self today, I better change my can Cause I'm Looking for Love again (I'm looking for love)

I'm Looking for Love again, that'll never end to fill up
my life
I'm Looking for a brand new love again (I'm looking for love)
I'm Looking for Love (Looking for love)
Just Looking for Love (I'm Looking for Love)
I'm Looking for Love again, that'll never end to fill up
my life
I'm Looking for a brand new love again

I know if I keep on trying, I'm bound to win
Just Looking for Love
I'm Looking for Love again, that'll never end to fill up
my life
I'm Looking for a brand new love again (looking for love)
I know if I keep on trying, I'm bound to win.
Just looking for Love
