Oh, I never did believe it
I heard I could seem so tight Now that I'm in next to you there's no turning back its never over til its over There's nothin' we can do

It's another mystery something I just can't explain First I try to get away, and now I want your name
I didn't plan it quite this way
But there's nothin' I can do

It's kinda strange what I can do to your heart
Oh, you never know just what is true to your heart.

CHORUS:

Didn't mean to love you, I need you
There's nothin' we can do about it now
There's nothin' we can do
Didn't wanna watch you, hold you
there's nothin' we can do about it now
And there is nothin we can do

So in between a love and date we've already crossed the line no matter how long you hesitate you've gotta make up your mind instead of love if you don't say and there's nothin we can do

I did my best to convince myself, that there's good in me right?
but no matter what I told myself I think of you each night never know just what we want till its time to say goodbye

It's kinda strange what I can do to your heart

Never notice what is true to the heart

CHORUS:

Didn't mean to love you, I need you
There's nothin we can do about it now
And there is nothin we can do
Didn't wanna watch you, hold you
there's nothin' we can do about it now
You know there's nothin we can do

CHORUS:

Didn't mean to love you, I need you
There's nothin we can do about it now
Oh, there is nothin we can do
Didn't wanna watch you, hold you
There's nothin we can do about it now
Oh!
And there's nothin!
