You can't hide behind those eyes
I can see past that disguise
Did you really think that you could hide
When I know everything inside
You made the other feel like fools
I'll be the exception to the rule
You don't control me anymore

I'll pick myself off up the floor
I'm moving on cause I'm too strong for you
You might think that I'm a fool

I'm an exception to the rule

Finally put these memories on a shelf
After looking deep within myself
No they won't bother me no more
I'll pick myself up off the floor

I'll pick myself off up the floor
I'm moving on cause I'm too strong for you
You might think that I'm a fool
I'm an exception to the rule
