Don't ever mistake my patience for being to kind.
Don't ever mistake my solitude for having a good time.

because you pick me up and pour me out
because you pick me up and pour me out

chorus:

Give me something to believe in.
Give me something to love.
Give me a little bit of anything
and I'll give you a sign from above.

because you pick me up and you pour me out

Don't ever give me the season to move on because I'll pack up my reasons and I'll be gone.
Don't ever mistake my gratitude for need
because I'll mistake your emptiness for greed.

[chorus]

because you pick me up and you pour me out
because you pick me up and you pour me out

Deliverance is just tangled up misfits in my head.

Don't ever mistake my patience for being to kind.
Don't ever mistake my solitude for having a good time.
because you pick me up and you pour me out

[chorus]

Deliverance is just tangled up misfits in my head.
