hello, I think I'm now awake sorry I made the mistake of dreaming it was you goodbye, to that castle in the sky to my prince from lives gone by I guess it was just a lie the time, the time, the time keeps slippin away chorus:

true love the idealistic daydream close my eyes cause it's only when I'm asleep lay me down idealistic daydream forever counting your sheep I just want to go back to sleep so I ask you now how'd you take my breath away how'd you touch my soul that day never intending to stay
