do you see me like I see you do you hear me when I speak of you do you feel me when I'm loving you do you see me because I see you but it's goodbye again

I saw your world from the side a simple glimpse of the pleasures you pride now it's back to my own reality I wish you could see me

he chases the snow while I chase my dreams so my life just got cold dancing alone in the dark it always seems to be with him is to be bold cause it's goodbye again

[2x chorus]

Until the moon fell under the sun
Now life's begun
